Rainbow Graduation 2012

UC San Diego's Rainbow Graduation And Induction into the LGBT Alumni Chapter is on Saturday, June 9th, 2012 - Four o' clock in the afternoon at the Great Hall at Eleanor Roosevelt College.

Information we need from you!

What Rainbow Graduation is:

- Something you would invite your family/close friends/those most important to you
- An opportunity to honor YOU
- Your formal induction into the ranks of UCSD LGBT Alumni
- Although many people do get dressed up for the event, it tends to be a queer little get together, with all the trappings of our community, so be yourself
- Something that has GREAT food
- Something that over 150 folks usually attend, sometimes more
- Something you'd ask a favorite professor/those who have affected you at UCSD to attend
- The last formal program of the year from the LGBT Resource Center

- Lots of fun
- The event where you get a Rainbow Tassel (Woo Hoo!)

What Rainbow Graduation is not:

- An actual graduation (it is a celebration, but you don't get a diploma or anything, but a nifty certificate)
- A substitute for attending your college graduation
- Something you would want to miss

How do folks deal with all of this graduating stuff?

Graduating seniors often experience many different feelings as they prepare to leave UCSD, including sadness, fear, happiness, and relief. Building a community of supportive folks around you is important as you go through your last months at UCSD. There are opportunities for you to create your own experience around navigating these issues. In the past, it's looked like OutBound, Commencement Coffee, among other events. If this is something you'd like to see happen, please e-mail Vanidy at vbailey@ucsd.edu.
