

LGBT Movies and Documentaries with Drug/Alcohol Themes

- “High Art” — it is a little older. It is about drug culture with lesbian characters. It is NOT cheery.
- “Gia” – which is a movie with Angelina Jolie as a model and heroine addict.
(<http://www.rottentomatoes.com/m/gia/>)
- “Party Monster”
- “Queer as folk” – there is a whole crystal meth storyline, but it develops over 3-5 episodes (I think in the 3rd season), so that might not be feasible.
- “Rock Bottom”: Crystal Meth and Gay men
(<http://www.rottentomatoes.com/m/rock-bottom-gay-men-meth/>)
(<http://movies.nytimes.com/movie/379335/Rock-Bottom-Gay-Men-and-Meth/overview>)
- “Through a Glass Darkly by the Twin Cities Gay Men's Chorus”
(<http://tcgmc.org/music-merchandise/through-a-glass-darkly/>) (It is a performance commissioned by the Twin Cities Gay Men's Chorus on meth addiction and use. The DVD includes interviews from members of the chorus who have gone through meth addiction and those who have been through addiction with friends and family. You can learn more about the piece from composer Michael Shaieb at:
(<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UHQJmW7KMvo>) )

Thanks for the Contributors:

Shane Whalley, Lauren Adamski, Amit Taneja, Pat Tetreault & Timothy Gardner